Philadelphia Animal Welfare Society

PAWS, the Philadelphia Animal Welfare Society, is a 501(c)3 non-profit dedicated to saving Philadelphia's homeless, abandoned, and unwanted animals. PAWS is the City's largest rescue partner and only no-kill shelter.

We are working toward making Philadelphia a city in which every healthy and treatable pet is guaranteed a home.

From 2005 through 2008, PAWS raised the "save rate" at the city shelter — which took in approximately 30,000 animals each year — from 11% to 60%. Through its adoption location, special events, and foster care network, PAWS finds loving homes for thousands of animals each year. Support for PAWS funds lifesaving initiatives including adoption and foster care programs, spay and neuter surgeries, low-cost vaccinations, and other efforts, all of which help reduce and will ultimately eliminate the unnecessary killing of Philadelphia's animals.
